Two Enemy Divisions Engaged in Conflict on American Front

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Aug. 2.—Fighting of the most bitter nature marked the American advance east and south of Serpy on Thursday, says Reuter's correspondent on the American front.

Bellevue farm, north of the village of Clerges, was the German strong point, since from it they could command the approaches on four sides and their gun nests about it were concealed cleverly in the ripening wheat which afforded excellent cover.

"This kind of fighting," the correspondent continues, "is slow business and bad business for the side that tries to hurry it unless it has an overwhelming power of guns and in this open fighting guns cannot be concentrated as they are for trench attacks."

"Two divisions opposed to the Americans were the 200th Jaeger division, which seem to be composed of stout fellows from various German states, and the 216th which was brought from Kemmel, on the British front in Flanders by way of Laon, where they had rested for several days. They did not appear to be such good material as the other divisions. One youngster of 19 said he had been a year in service but that this was his first fight. He avowed with tears that he did not like it. Other prisoners being asked why the Americans were beating them, replied:

"The Americans have good food in their stomachs, while the Germans only have poor stuff that no one could fight upon."

"Not far from this front a somewhat better group was found. There were five Germans and an officer on one side of it and four Americans on the other. It had been a fight to the finish and the last American to survive had thrust his bayonet downward into the earth to signify that he was the last one to see it through."

"Meanwhile the fighting had been proceeding between Serpy and Seringes with much of the old bitterness. The artillery had slackened and the fashion in which the enemy met the American infantry showed he had no intention of retreating unless compelled by superior forces. Prisoners from the 201st division declare that their orders were to hold the line at all costs, especially at Hill 184 (northwest of Seringes). They seemed to have little doubt that there is no lack of troops behind them."

Reuter's correspondent on the American front telegraphing Thursday night says:

"There may be some danger of misconception or disappointment arising from certain rather flamboyant account of the fighting on the American front since these give the impression of tremendous effort with little headway and the conclusion may be drawn that the director of the allied advance is finding successful accomplishment beyond his means."

"Although no praise is too high for the way the Americans are fighting that fighting is on a comparatively small scale as things are measured on this front and does not suggest hurry on the part of the allied command to reach particular destination."

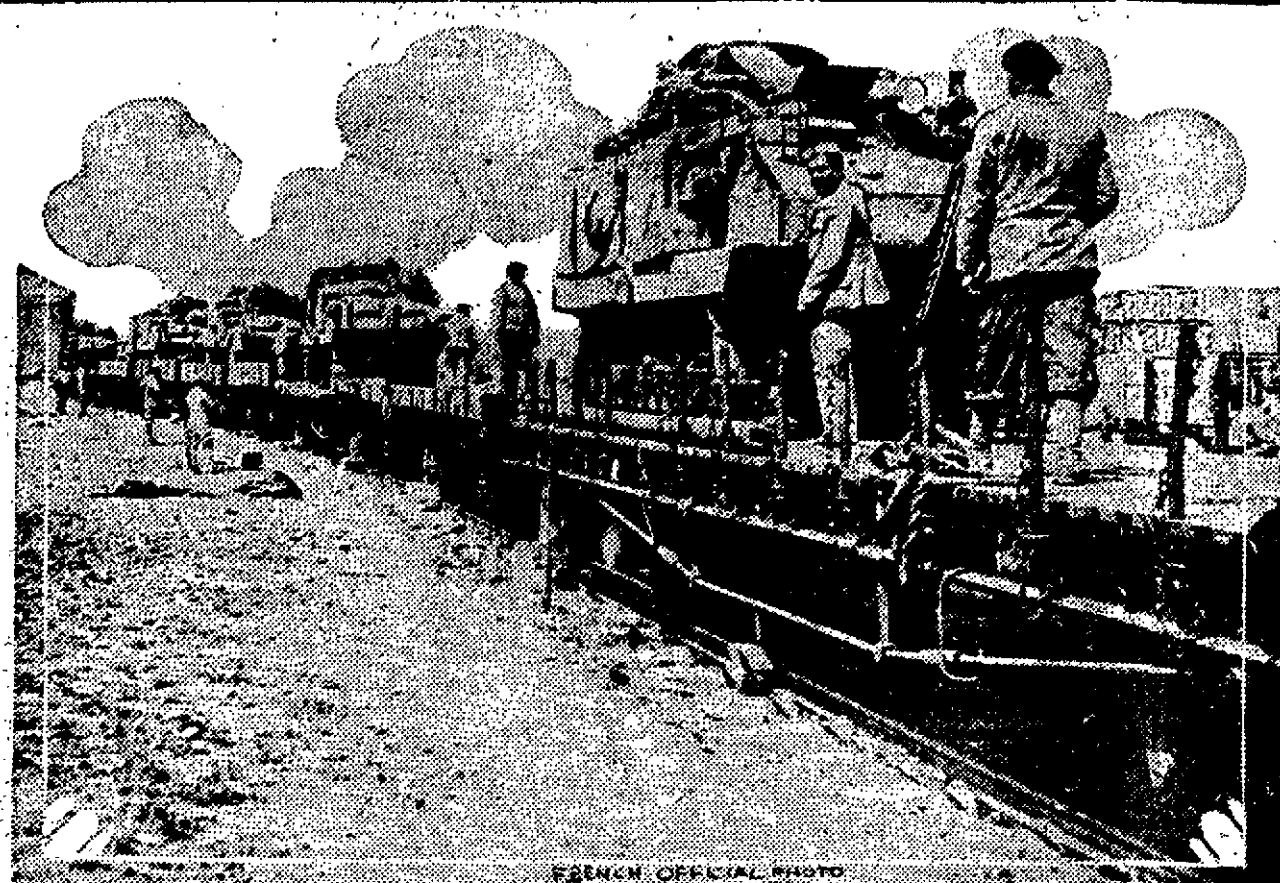

"If the commander's purpose required speed more guns would be needed for comparison with past fighting the present operations might also be called gunless, so large has the role of the infantry been. It has been bitter as possible and the Americans have won imperishable laurels in it, but the scale of fighting would not entitle one to expect greater progress from it or indeed more than a mere folding up of ground. It would be a mistake to suppose that the tremendous struggle is producing inadequate results."

The tide of battle on the American front drifted somewhat eastward on Wednesday, all the most severe fighting occurring in the vicinity of the village of Clerges, which is some two miles southeast of Serpy, says Reuter's correspondent on the American front telegraphing Thursday evening.

"Clerges," continues the correspondent, "has for some days been a stumbling block to our advance and it is noteworthy that it and the Meniere wood formed strong centers of opposition during the first German retreat from the Marne. The Havoc wrought during the two retreats being carefully intermingled. One stately chateau, whose towers have been freshly damaged by German shells, has in the banqueting hall big bushes of elderberries which evidently had seeded there when the roof was blown off in 1914."

"Clerges itself is unoccupied by either side, neither having any wish to be in there, for the village is in a deep cup in which the gas lies ten

EIGHT HUNDRED MOSQUITO TANKS BITE GERMAN

New type of tank used by French in counter-drive.

The mosquito tanks, as they are called, shown in this French official photo, are the latest French creation. They are designed primarily to be light and swift in action. They are being used almost exclusively by the French for assault purposes. The Kolnische Zeitung declares that the French have used 800 of these small "fly" tanks in their counter offensive. Results obtained show they must have proved effective. The photo shows some of the tanks loaded for shipment to the front.

SPLENDID TRIBUTE TO VALOR AND EFFICIENCY OF RAINBOW DIVISION BY COM. FRENCH ARMY CORPS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Striking tribute to the valor and fighting efficiency of the Forty-Second (Rainbow) division of the American army by General Duport, commanding the French Sixth army corps in Lorraine to which the Forty-second was attached up to the middle of last June, is contained in general orders issued by the French commander bidding farewell to the Americans when they set out for the battle front on the Aisne-Marne lines where they are proving their mettle in attack.

General Duport said the division was ready to "take a glorious place in the new line of battle" and paid tribute also to the skill of Major General Menoher commanding, and of Colonel, now Brigadier General Douglass McArthur, divisional chief of staff. The text of the order follows:

Headquarters, June 15, 1918: Sixth Army Corps, General Order No. 50.

"At the moment when the Forty-second United States infantry division is leaving the Lorraine front, the commanding general of the Sixth Army corps desires to do homage to the fine military qualities which it has continuously exhibited and to the service which it has rendered in the Baccarat sector."

"The offensive ardour, the sense for the utilization and the organization of terrain as for the liaison of the army, the spirit of method, the discipline shown by all officers and men, the inspiration animating them, prove that at the first call they can henceforth take a glorious place in the new line of battle."

"The commanding general of the Sixth army corps expresses his deepest gratitude to the Forty-second division for its precious collaboration; he particularly thanks the distinguished commander of this division, General Menoher, the officers under his orders and his staff so brilliantly directed by Colonel McArthur."

"It is with a sincere regret that the entire Sixth army corps sees the Forty-second division depart. But the bonds of affectionate comradeship which have been formed here will not be broken, for us in faithful memory, are united the living and the dead of the Rainbow division, those who are leaving for hard combats and those who, after having nobly sacrificed their lives, on the land of the east, now rest there, guarded over piously by friends."

"These sentiments of warm esteem will be more deeply affirmed during the impending struggles where the fate of free peoples is to be decided."

"May our units, side by side, contribute valiantly to the triumph of justice and right."

"GENERAL DUPORT
Commanding the Sixth Army Corps.
(Signed) "Duport."

General McArthur, it was learned officially today has now been ordered back to the United States to command a brigade of the new division to be organized at Camp Meade, Md. He already has been decorated for valor by the French army leaders and his promotion to the rank of brigadier general was the direct result of his brilliant work done in organizing the Rainbow division composed of National guard units from nearly thirty states and in conducting the staff work of the division at the front.

NEW REVENUE BILL TAKING FINAL FORM; READY AUGUST 15TH

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Aug. 2.—The new $3,000,000,000 revenue bill being drafted by the house ways and means committee has begun to take final form and it was predicted today that the bill would be finished ready for presentation by August 15 or shortly after. The bill will not be introduced, however, until the end of the congressional recess, late this month.

Rapid progress has been made by the committee this week, and it was expected that an adjournment until Monday would be taken at the close of today's session with the greater portion of the measure tentatively accepted.

New items in the bill definitely agreed upon yesterday include doubling of the present special taxes on manufacturers of cigars, tobacco and cigarettes, increased taxes on brokers, theatres, billiard and pool parlors and other amusements and capitalization of corporations and a tax of one per cent on the retail sales of mail order firms doing more than $100,000 business annually. Pullman seats and berths will be taxed eight per cent instead of ten per cent as at present, the tax on such tickets being the same as on railroad passenger fares. Stamp taxes, the committee decided, will remain as under the present revenue bill.

AT CAMP PERRY.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Port Clinton, O., Aug. 2.—The next class of 350 student officers for the small arms firing school will arrive at Camp Perry Saturday and the commencement exercises for the class of 525, which graduates will be held during the morning.

HAS NOT ANNOUNCED EXTENSION OF THE DRAFT AGE LIMITS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Members of the military committees of congress, recalled to Washington by Chairman Dent and Chamberlain of the house and senate committees, respectively, will receive next week the new army program of the war department with its recommendations for the extension of the draft age limits. Chairman Dent conferred with Secretary Baker yesterday and Senator Chamberlain will be called into conference as soon as he returns to Washington.

Pending the assembling of the two committees, Secretary Baker has let it be known that no announcement will be made regarding the new war program. Interest centered today on the age limits to which the selective military service regulations will be extended.

Secretary Baker has refused to make any announcement as to his proposals for expending the draft age limits. He has made it plain however, that the suggestion that the age limits be fixed at 19 to 40 had been rejected. There was a distinct feeling in some quarters today that extension to the ages of 19 to 36 will be recommended.

LIBERTY BONDS SELLING AT PAR

(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Aug. 2.—Liberty 3-12 per cent bonds which are exempt from taxation, sold at par today on the stock exchange here for the first time this year. Steady buy of this issue by leading financial interests has been noticeable recently.

EDDIE RICKENBACHER CITED FOR BRAVERY

(Associated Press Telegram)

Columbus, Aug. 2.—Lieutenant Edward V. (Eddie) Rickenbacher, former well known American automobile racer and now an ace in the United States aviation service in France, has been cited for bravery by the French government.

His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Rickenbacher of this city today received the citation, in the form of a steel engraving signed by General Gerard of the French army. The citation was awarded for the sending down in flames of an enemy airplane.

JAPAN HAS ACCEPTED AMERICAN PROPOSAL FOR INTERVENTION

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Japan has found acceptable the American proposal which primarily looks to the aid of the Czechoslovaks, now operating in Siberia, and after exchanges between Tokio and Washington which have cleared up all doubtful points and removed any possibility of future misunderstanding a complete agreement has been reached. The plan of operation will be put into execution at once.

BENNY AND WATER WERE STRANGERS OVER 100 YEARS

(Associated Press Telegram)

Sandusky, O., Aug. 2.—Ben Woolley, 101, was admitted to the county infirmary yesterday. The rules require bath. Woolley protested vigorously.

"I never took a bath in my life," he said. But after more than a century of dirt was removed, Woolley said he felt "bully." He has lived alone in a shack near Castalia.

LITTLE AMERICAN OUTWITS BIG HUN

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Aug. 2.—A little American "a shrimp of a man" outwitted a huge German in a deadly grapple on the Marne battlefield, says Reuter's correspondent at American headquarters.

The German was about to finish the American with his bayonet. The American grabbed a grenade from his belt, fumbled with his fingers till he loosened the safety catch and then thrust the grenade into the German's pocket. With sudden terror the German realized the American's intention, but before he could counter, it was too late.

There was not enough left of his equipment, the correspondent adds, to provide the quick thinking little American with a souvenir.

JUMPED FROM A BURNING PLANE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 2.—Lieutenant Robinson E. Birdwell of West Bluff, Calif., was killed while making a cross country flight about nine miles south of here today. Birdwell's machine caught fire when about 2,000 feet in the air and descended in flames. At about 500 feet the aviator leaped to avoid the fire and was killed by the fall.

ENTIRE RIDGE BETWEEN THE OURCQ AND THE AISNE CAPTURED AS FRANCO-BRITISH TROOPS ATTACK ON FIVE-MILE FRONT IN MARNE SALIENT

ALLIES IN COMMAND OF WHOLE AREA; TAKES IN GATE THROUGH WHICH HUNS ARE RETIRING

Germans Will Not Be Able to Retire In an Orderly Leisurely Way and Will Have to Go Beyond the River Vesle In Their Retreat—Hostile Artillery Active South of Somme and Ypres and North of Bethune and On the Hazebrouck Front—French Troops Make New Progress North of the Marne River.

(Associated Press Telegram)

On the French front in France, August 2, Noon.—The battle on the front north of the Marne resolved itself during the night and this morning into almost a general retirement of the enemy north of the Ourcq, with the allies pursuing the Germans with the greatest zeal and success.

The town of Hartennes-Tank was occupied by the allies, who also seized the wood lying to the south of this most important place. The French and British in this sector took Contremain and then crossed the Chateau-Thierry-Soissons road.

The Germans are burning villages as they retire and destroying everything they come across. The entire battlefield is dotted by conflagrations, some of them of large proportions.

Along the center of the front as well as on the westerly side the German resistance seemed greatly diminished. The allies pressed through a series of thickets north of the road leading from Goussancourt to Coulonges and reached the southern part of Vezilly wood.

Further east on the line the allies are within 500 yards of Villers Agron and along the line toward Rheims they captured a wood situated 1500 yards east of Romigny.

Allied patrols have attained a position three fifths of a mile north of Ville-en-Tardenois and have occupied a height 1500 yards north of Romigny.

WHOLE AMERICAN LINE MOVES FORWARD TODAY

(Associated Press Telegram)

With the American Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, August 2, Noon.—The whole American line moved forward today while the armies along the flank from Soissons to Rheims pressed hard against the sides of the German salient.

Their guns were made almost without resistance. Hammered as they have been for days, the Germans withdrew during the night so that when the Americans, who were supported on their right and left by the French, started early this morning they did not encounter the usual machine gun fire.

In open order the men plowed their way through the heavy rain soaked fields for almost a mile.

The indications are that the Germans will not make a stand until they reach the water shed north of Nesles forest.

ALLIES TAKE GOUSSANCOURT

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, August 2. (Battlefront).—Yesterday's Franco-British attack on the westerly side of the Marne salient was on a front of five miles and penetrated to a maximum depth of three miles, according to news received today. It resulted in the capture of the entire ridge which forms the water shed between the Ourcq and the Aisne, the allies indicate.

The French also captured the entire Meunier wood, on the line to the west of Goussancourt, at the center of the salient.

The advance by the allies along the western side of the salient is described as extremely important, possibly the most important thing the allies have accomplished since the Germans retired from the Marne.

The importance of the victory, it is explained lies in the fact that the new allied positions command the whole area to the northward and takes in flank and rear of the entire western gate through which the Germans have been retreating. This area is a nest of German reserve and field artillery.

Goussancourt itself has been taken by the French, the allies add.

The capture of the important ground on the heights to the westerly side of the line also means that the Germans will not be able to retire in an orderly leisurely way and that they probably will have to go beyond the river Vesle in their retreat.

The situation is considered as extraordinarily good, being described in the advice as the turning point of the summer campaign and possibly of the whole war.

ADDITIONAL TOWNS TAKEN

(Associated Press Telegram)

On the French front in France, August 2.—The important town of Ville-en-Tardenois, on the easterly side of the Marne salient, has been encircled by the allied forces.

The French are continuing to advance and have taken additional towns and villages at various parts of the front between Soissons and Rheims. The enemy is resisting desperately and losing in prisoners.

BRITISH TAKE PRISONERS.

(Associated Press Telegram)

London, Aug. 2.—The British have carried out raids at Festubert, northwest of Lens and at Albert, in the Picardy sector and have captured several prisoners, according to a statement issued by the war office today. The German artillery, the statement says, has shown increased activity south of the Somme and south of Ypres, while it has been active north of Bethune and east of Hazebrouck in the Lys sector.

The statement reads:

"A few prisoners were captured by our patrols yesterday, in the neighborhood of Festubert."

"During the night English troops carried out a successful raid north of Albert, capturing 16 prisoners and a machine gun."

"The hostile artillery has shown somewhat increased activity south of the Somme and south of Ypres, and has been active also north of Bethune and on our front east of Hazebrouck."

PRESS BACK GERMAN.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Paris, Aug. 2.—On the battlefield north of the Marne, the French troops during the night continued to press back the Germans farther toward the Vesle, says the official statement from the war office today.

The statement follows:

"During the night French troops made new progress north of the Marne."

ALLIES DOMINATE WESTERN SECTION OF BATTLE AREA.

(Compiled from A.P. Dispatches.)

Crushing in the German lines north of the Ourcq river, the allies on Thursday carried their front to the northeast from their former positions between Hartennes and Fere-Tardenois. The exact location of the new line is not given in the early dispatches from the battlefield, but it is said that the allies have established themselves on the high ridges between the Ourcq and the Aisne and dominate the whole western section of the battle area.

The attack was made over a front of about five miles and penetrated to an extreme depth of three miles from the former line. It was reported Thursday night that the allies are within five miles of Bazoches an important German railroad center on the Vesle river, which agrees quite closely with this morning's report of the advance to the northeast of Beugnez the approximate center of the line of attack Thursday.

Further east and south, the allies have captured the village of Clerges, after a sanguinary struggle.

In the center of the line important progress is shown in reports from the front. Goussancourt has been captured and the northern edges of

WOULD OPERATE POWER PLANTS.

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, Aug. 2.—A war emergency bill authorizing the president to acquire, construct or operate power plants of all kinds with a view to stimulating production of material and commodities essential to the prosecution of the war, has been drafted by the war industries board and was submitted today to Chairman Sims, of the house interstate commerce committee. Mr. Sims said the proposed legislation was designed to take advantage of steam power as well as water power during the war and that, if introduced it would be offered as an amendment to the pending administration water power bill now before the house.

FOUND DEAD BY HER HUSBAND.

Mrs. Margaret Ann Fitz, wife of Patrolman Frank Fitz of Zanesville was found dead by her husband Thursday afternoon, after she swallowed a fatal quantity of carbolic acid. She was aged 26 years, and but two hours before her husband found her, had waved a happy good-bye to him.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Phillips of Zanesville and is a sister of James Phillips of this city.

"A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush," quoted the Wise Guy. "You can't make the bird believe that," retorted the Simple Mug.

The letter was made public today at the White House.

CANADIAN BEAUTY AIDS WAR BAZAARS

Mrs. D. Lorne McGibbon.

Mrs. D. Lorne McGibbon of Montreal is one of the most beautiful women in Canadian society. She is one of the women working untiringly for Canada. She is equally well known in New York where she spends much time in the great war relief bazaar. Together with Lady Ross, Mrs. Mitchell Henry, Lady Mortimer Davis, and others, the Canadian women while working for all the various war relief societies are particularly interested in their Khaki Clubs and the Patriotic Fund which is used for the relief of soldiers' families in need.

HORSE WHIPPING TOO GOOD FOR THIS MANAGER

Every day tales are heard which seem to establish a record for the "meanest man," but an episode today works to establish his identity beyond doubt.

Private Clyde L. Thompson of the Canadian army, who spoke at the High School Auditorium last night, was today abandoned by his manager who not only took leave but the funds with him. Thompson, an American, who enlisted in 1910 with the Canadian forces, and who lost his right arm in the war, spoke last night at the High School under the auspices of the G. A. R. As is the custom, a collection was taken to defray the expenses of the speaker.

This morning the manager and the funds were missing, and Thompson was left to his own devices. He himself was stranded at the Arcade Hotel. Mr. Thompson had a speaking engagement in Zanesville, and a kindly disposed traveling man, who was going that way in his machine, took him to that city. Mr. Thompson remained at the Arcade Hotel, and his manager, Mr. Jesse H. Walters.

It is stated that for the past few weeks the manager seemed miserably small, but today they evaporated with the manager. Private Thompson spoke at Purdy Wednesday night. He is expected to return to Newark tomorrow and may assist in the campaign in this county next week.

Milady's Boudoir

The Abuse of Powder. Face powder can be abused if not used discreetly, just as can perfume, makeup, or any other article of milady's toilet.

Few people will deny that powder is necessary to the well-groomed woman, but the abuse of it is a bad habit. Many women who employ inordinate powder to cover a multitude of pinched, lined, and blotchy faces. The way in which a woman uses powder differs as much as the women. I hear one declare that a dash bit of powder can be used only a well-woman can be used. Another says that this is too drying and that a soft bit of flannel is better. The third turns up her nose at the mention of flannel and voices for some soft prepared cloth which is on the market for the purpose.

Another says that these are not sanitary and proudly asserts that a dash bit of powder can be used only a well-woman can be used. Another says that this is too drying and that a soft bit of flannel is better. The third turns up her nose at the mention of flannel and voices for some soft prepared cloth which is on the market for the purpose.

One says a dry towel, another a piece of white silk and still another thinks a bit of Turkish toweling correct. And so the battle of the powder rage continues to rage.

The secret of using face powder without bad effects depends on whether the face is or is not thoroughly cleaned before retiring. A good cream should be applied and wiped off with a clean, soft towel. This will leave the pores clean and free for several hours, and at the same time improve the color and texture of the skin.

The wise woman will choose her powder as carefully as she chooses her physician. She will select the thing best suited to her complexion, apply it carefully, never neglect to brush it out of her eyebrows and lashes, and always look the better for using it.

Our Boys and Girls

Here is a simple menu for a child's birthday party. Cup of bouillon, education crackers, creamed chicken, bread and butter, junk and cookies. Cut the sandwiches in fancy shapes, roll some with the cream with colored ribbons. Make the junk in fancy moulds, such as hearts, and have all sorts of fancy shapes and sizes to attract the little ones.

A plain birthday cake with white frosting and tiny stars for the little one has been placed on a platter, with the candles burning and surrounded with gay flowers, will be a delight to the children. Cut the cake in four equal parts, and place a little mace Japanese flower on each part. Just before serving, cut the cake and place the flowers on the water.

Here is the recipe for the birthday cake: 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/4 teaspoon of salt, 1/4 cup of flour, 1/4 teaspoon of cream of tartar, 1 egg white and 1/2 cup of milk. Beat the sugar and egg whites with a wire whisk until stiff, add the flour and cream of tartar four times, beat and fold in the stiffly beaten milk alternately with the flour. Bake in a angel cake pan one hour in a moderate oven.

Every Day Etiquette

A HOT WEATHER DISCOVERY

For 60 years Eagle Brand has nourished the babies of the nation. For 60 years it has robbed hot weather of some of the worst of its terrors. And still there are mothers who have not yet discovered that Eagle Brand removes all danger of hot-weather milk contamination.

If Nature's own food is insufficient, use Eagle Brand. Wherever you go it is always obtainable and always of uniform purity. Even in midsummer's heat, the baby will retain and digest it. It is prepared from rich cow's milk and comes to you hygienically sealed—pure, wholesome and economical.

GETAWAY DAY FOR GRAND CIRCUIT ON COLUMBUS TRACK

Columbus, Aug. 2.—For the final day's racing at the Columbus mid-summer grand circuit meeting for class races are on the program. The 2:15 pace, the 2:15 trot, the 2:15 pace and the 2:15 trot. All are for horses under 100 lbs. Rimland will start the 2:15 trot and will continue his successes as in recent meetings for the field is not one to alarm his backers. In other races most of the entries are horses who started early in the week and are being repeated.

BOYS RACES ON HUDSON AVENUE

The second boys' bicycle race was held Thursday under the direction of the Y. M. C. A. and the Chamber of Commerce. Forty-one boys rode.

Through the courtesy of the mayor and the interest of the chief of police, a quarter mile stretch of Hudson avenue was barred for the race for an hour and a half, that the boys of our community might have a safe straightaway. In return for this concession it is suggested that the boys of Newark be particularly careful to obey the sidewalk bicycle law, to show the chief that they appreciate his work for them.

The winners in Class A were: Wm. Elfinger, 37-5; Sterling Statterfield, 38-2; Class B, 38-2; Francis Glennan, 38-2; Edgar Kuntz, 38-2; Class C, Bill Flannigan, 38-1-5; Bernard O'Neill, 38-1-5. Some other good work is shown in the records of Joe Rider, 41-2; Francis Glennan, 41-2, a gain of a second and a half over his last performance, and John Slater, 41-4, a gain of 4 or 5 seconds over last time.

Following is a record of other performances: Roy Forgrave, 39-1-5; John Alexander, 39-2; Earl Strand, 40-2-5; Claud Furber, 40-5; Floyd Darr, 41; Cliff Sturgeon, 41; Stacy Johnson, 42-1-5; Don Jordan, 42-1-5; Layman Stetebell, 42-1-5; Wm. WHAT WE FIGHT FOR.

The high aims of America and her allies are well expressed in President Wilson's greetings to France on Bastille day:

"As France celebrated our Fourth of July, so do we celebrate her Fourteenth, keenly conscious of a comradeship of arms and of purpose of which we are deeply proud. The sea seems very narrow today, France is so close neighbor to our hearts. The war is being fought to save ourselves from intolerable things, but it is also being fought to save mankind. We extend our hands to each other, to the great peoples with whom we are associated; and to the peoples everywhere who love right and prize justice as a thing beyond price, and consecrate ourselves once more to the noble enterprise of peace and justice, realizing the great conceptions that have lifted France and America high among the free peoples of the world. The French flag flies today from the staff of the White House, and America is happy to do honor to that flag."

A CALL TO DUTY.

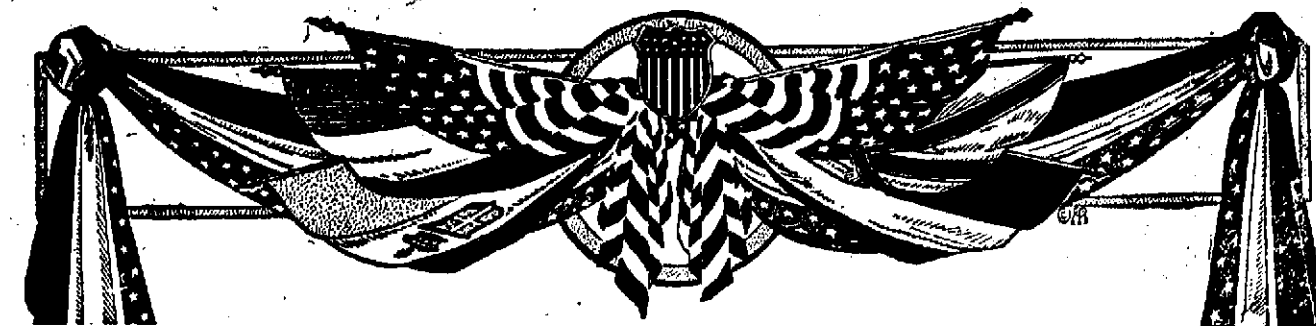

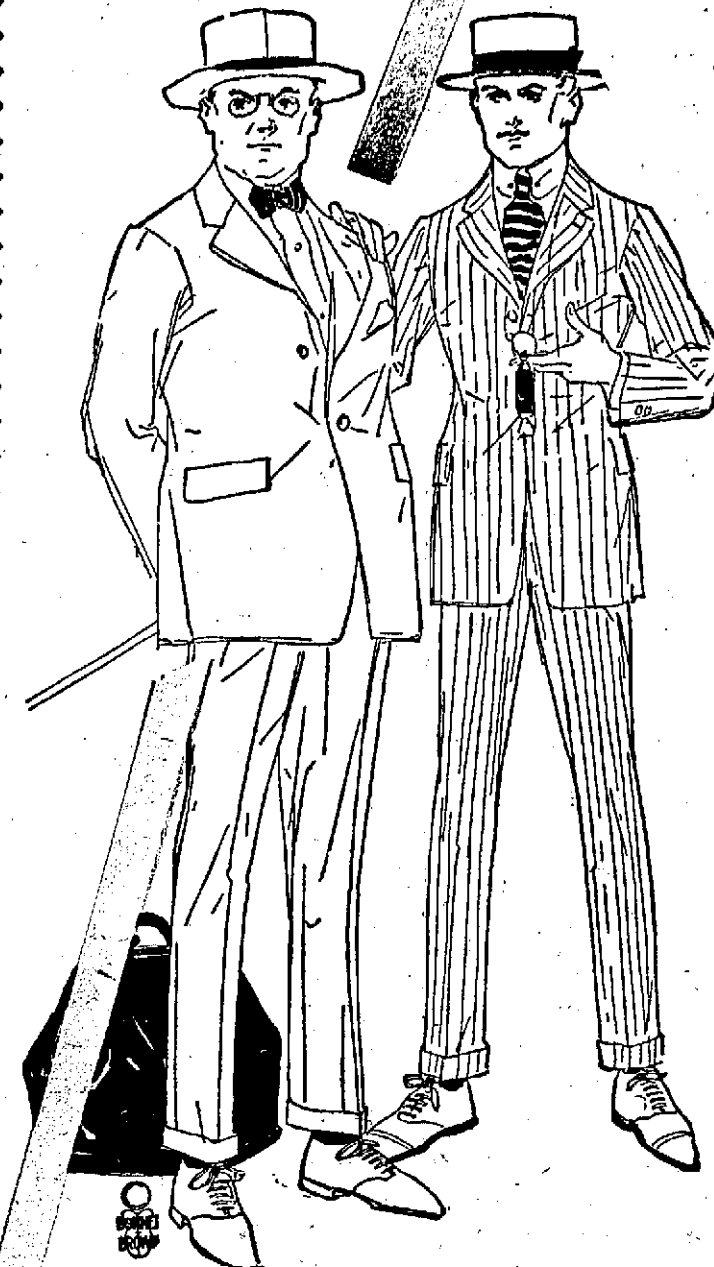

From the battlefields in France there comes an unspoken call that should find an answer in every American heart. The recent great events in Europe, the successes of American arms on the fields of France should spur every American to greater effort.

Our people at home should not rest on the laurels of our soldiers in France. Every death on the field of honor in the line of duty and for our country's cause should be a call to us for every sacrifice and every exertion to aid the cause for which our soldiers are fighting, for which our soldiers have died.

Increase production, decrease consumption, save, and lend to the government. Every cent lent to the United States is used to support, strengthen, and aid our soldiers in France.

Bobbs—"He ought to make a good soldier. He comes of fighting stock." Slobbs—"Yes, his father and mother used to be at it all the times."

WHAT WE FIGHT FOR.

The high aims of America and her allies are well expressed in President Wilson's greetings to France on Bastille day:

"As France celebrated our Fourth of July, so do we celebrate her Fourteenth, keenly conscious of a comradeship of arms and of purpose of which we are deeply proud. The sea seems very narrow today. France is so close neighbor to our hearts. The war is being fought to save ourselves from intolerable things, but it is also being fought to save mankind. We extend our hands to each other, to the great peoples with whom we are associated; and to the peoples everywhere who love right and prize justice as a thing beyond price, and consecrate ourselves once more to the noble enterprise of peace and justice, realizing the great conceptions that have lifted France and America high among the free peoples of the world. The French flag flies today from the staff of the White House, and America is happy to do honor to that flag."

A CALL TO DUTY.

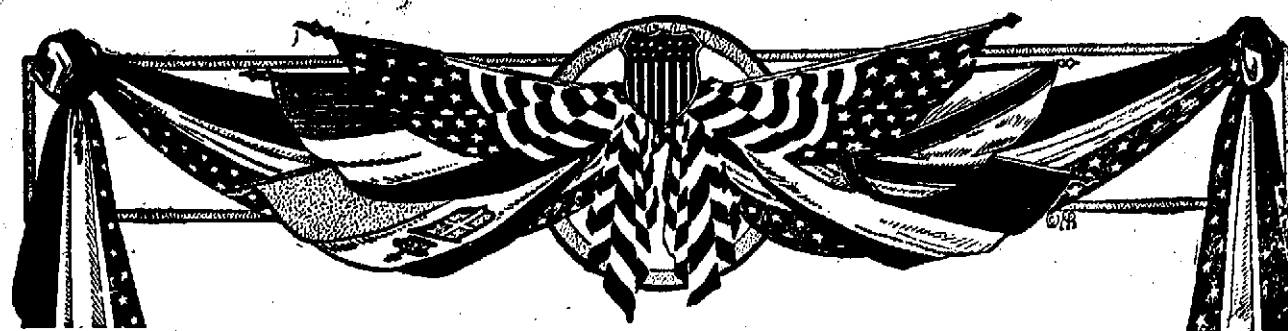

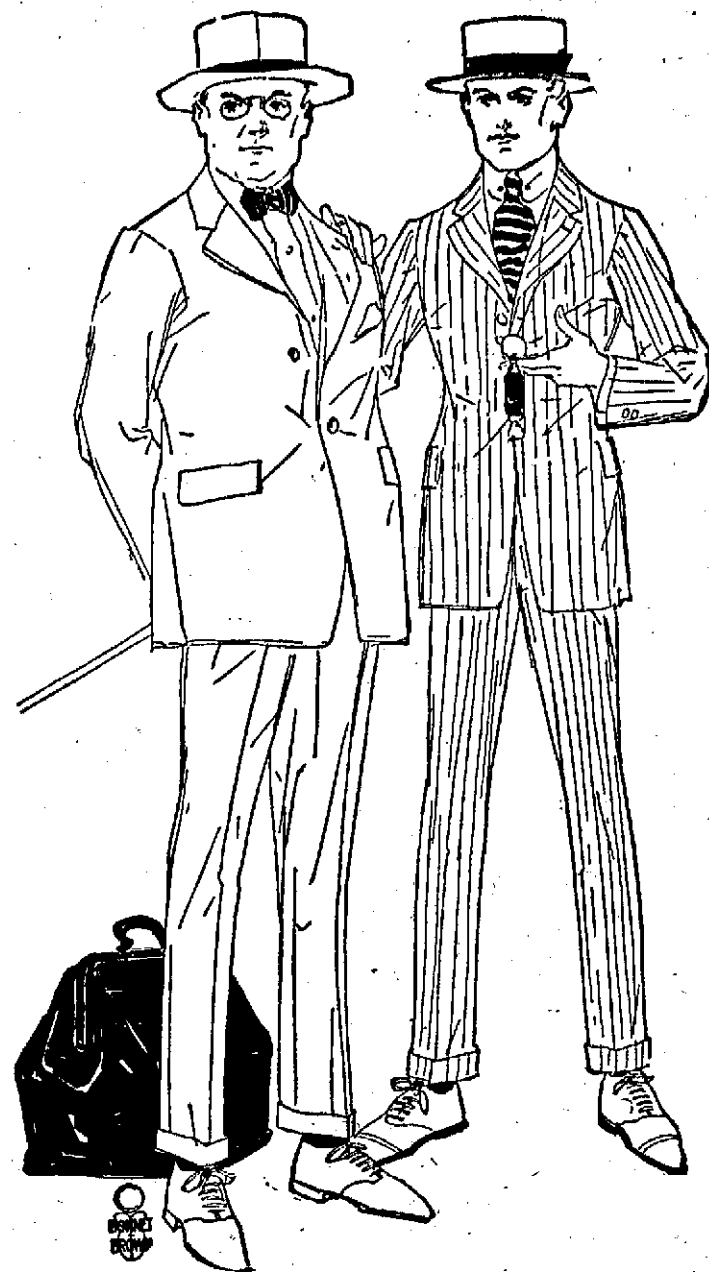

From the battlefields in France there comes an unspoken call that should find an answer in every American heart. The recent great events in Europe, the successes of American arms on the fields of France should spur every American to greater effort.

Our people at home should not rest on the laurels of our soldiers in France. Every death on the field of honor in the line of duty and for our country's cause should be a call to us for every sacrifice and every exertion to aid the cause for which our soldiers are fighting, for which our soldiers have died.

Increase production, decrease consumption, save, and lend to the government. Every cent lent to the United States is lent to support, strengthen, and aid our soldiers in France.

Blotbs.—"He ought to make a good soldier. He comes of fighting stock." Blotbs.—"Yes, his father and mother used to be at it all the times."

Figure 1 is a line graph showing the percentage of total energy expenditure (TEE) for different activities over a 24-hour period. The Y-axis is labeled 'Percentage of TEE' and ranges from 0 to 100 in increments of 20. The X-axis is labeled 'Time of Day' and ranges from 0 to 24 in increments of 2. Five activities are plotted: Sleeping (blue line), Resting (green line), Standing (yellow line), Walking (orange line), and Running (red line). Sleeping is the dominant activity at night, peaking at approximately 80% TEE between 22:00 and 02:00. Resting is the dominant activity during the day, peaking at approximately 60% TEE between 10:00 and 14:00. Standing, Walking, and Running are all relatively low energy expenditure activities, with Running peaking at approximately 10% TEE between 10:00 and 14:00.

Soldiers' Service Medal Fund.
The Advocate has just received for the soldiers' medal fund a dollar from an unknown friend. The request that a medal be sent to a certain Newark boy now at Camp Jackson, S. C., will be observed promptly. The Advocate has already had more than 1200 bronze medals engraved with the soldiers' and sailors' names and distributed. The list is growing daily. Because of the great number of medals and the limited fund at hand medals are given only to bona fide residents of Licking county who are in the service of the army and navy. The cost of these medals including engraving and postage is a trifle over 50 cents each.

NEW BEDFORD MEN
GET INTO GRIEF
IN AUTO WRECK

A Dodge machine driven by Bert
Sharpley of New Bedford, O., collided with an interurban car last night at 11 o'clock, just east of the Sanitarium in West Main street.
With Sharpley were Thomas Dobson and a boy named Watson all of New Bedford. They were driving west in the machine and were on the car tracks. The car was east bound and the driver did not seem to realize the danger until the car was upon them and when he attempted to turn out of the tracks the car caught the auto.
Sharpley had a finger broken, and suffered minor bruises while the others escaped injury. In the car was a quantity of bottled beer. The machine is said to be owned by a man named Johnson in New Bedford and that it had been left with Sharpley for repairs.
The trio was arrested after Sharpley had had his injuries dressed at the Sanitarium. Mrs. J. R. McBride and J. G. Shiner. This morning Dobson was fined $5 and costs for intoxication.
Sharpley was assessed $25 and costs for operating a machine while intoxicated and Watson, who is only 16 years old, was turned over to the juvenile court.

LITTLE MARY LONG RUN OVER BY AUTO;
ARM IS FRACTURED

Mary Alta, the four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Long of Granville street, was the victim of a painful accident yesterday, when she was run over by an automobile driven by a Mr. Doan of Zanesville. Mr. Doan, who was accompanied by his wife, was driving very slowly at the time of the accident, and the child, not seeing the approaching machine, ran in front of it, suffering a broken arm and numerous bruises about the face. Mr. Doan stopped immediately and secured Drs.
Postle and Kennedy, who attended the child. She is resting very comfortably this afternoon.

Charles P. O'Neill Is Candidate For Sheriff

Charley O'Neill, the genial restaurant keeper at 37 South Second street, and also in the Warden hotel, hopes to be sheriff after the next election. He doesn't say he will, but those who know him are fully aware of his ability and his interest in his everyday work that he will make a splendid officer.

He is the son of the late Thomas O'Neill, and was born in Erie county, near Sandusky, about 42 years ago. After his school days were over he began railroad work and kept it up in the services of the B. & O. making runs to and from Newark for several years, until about 25 years ago, after having looked Newark over several times he decided that "this is the town I want to live in," and he came here to live. He quit railroad work 15 years ago. His acquaintances are of the lasting kind, and that is why so many people speak kindly of Charley O'Neill. After he quit the road he engaged in business in this city and about five years ago he decided to enter the restaurant business which he has continued in a manner that has won him scores of new friends and patrons. He has been a life-long Republican, and he kindly solicits your vote at the primaries on August 13, for in the office of sheriff of Licking county. If you can see your way clear to let him have the aforesaid vote, Charley will do everything in his power to fill the bill in straight-forward and capable manner.

THE NEWARK AD CLUB

PLANS FOR DOLLAR DAY

At the regular meeting of the Newark Ad Club Wednesday evening it was decided to hold "Dollar Day" in September. Charles Federman, B. L. Eckfeld and C. L. Gamble were appointed a general committee to arrange for this big merchandising event. This committee will work in conjunction with other committees appointed at a previous meeting. The merchants are manifesting a deep interest in "Dollar Day" and from all indications it will prove a big success. The club adopted the following resolutions:

We believe in the United States of America—and its destiny. We believe in the high sense of justice and magnanimity of its people and its government.

We believe in the unselfish purposes with which the people and the government of the United States have accepted the obligation to curb the irresponsible course of the autocracy of the European nations with which this nation is at war.

We believe it is our duty—at whatever cost to ourselves—to support in every way possible the great cause of humanity for which our armed forces are fighting.

And because we believe, we do pledge ourselves to follow a course of unswerving fidelity to the United States of America—and

We believe that less important than its ideals, are the industries of a nation, because the ideals of a nation can have no power to continue themselves or radiate their influence throughout the world unless they are supported by the physical force of a nation; and therefore.

We believe that without the effective organization of its arts and crafts into industries a nation cannot have physical force adequately to back its ideals.

Therefore, we hold it to be self-evident, that we cannot be loyal to American ideals unless we are also loyal to the American industries which stand back of these ideals and lend them physical force by which they are continued and upheld.

And because we believe, we do pledge ourselves to support American producers of merchandise and to take a prideful interest in helping to advance and develop the potentialities for service of the millions engaged in producing goods that are eligible to bear the mark: "Made in the U. S. A."

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of the Advocate—Just a short letter to let you know I am still among the living and enjoying the very best of health in Old Virginia. I was transferred from Newport Rd. to Hampton Roads, Va. on July 17th. I like it here very much. The camp is situated on the grounds where the Jamestown Exposition was held and it is a very beautiful place. I am now in the Gunners' School where I'll receive about two months schooling and target practice after which I hope to go to sea. I was with Dan Ryan on board the "Susquehanna" several days last week. We got liberty on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from six p.m. until one a.m. and on Saturday from one p.m. until 1 a.m. so you can see we are having a lot of pleasure along with our work. Can go to either Norfolk, Newport News, Old Point Comfort or Ocean View all within ten miles of the camp. My address is as follows: Owen E. Heatwole, Naval Air Base, Hampton Roads, (Unit "I" G. M. S.) Va. Best wishes to all, yours truly, Owen E. Heatwole.

Editor of the Advocate—I received the service medal sent to me and thank you very much for same. Just came back from Brazil, Uruguay and several other countries. I cannot mention now Samuel J. Kuhn, U. S. S. Nebraska, Third Division, care postmaster New York City.

SHORT HORN BREEDERS' PICNIC AUGUST 8TH

Great preparations are being made for the Licking County Short Horn Breeders' Picnic which will be held at the County Fair Grounds, all day Thursday, August 8th. This is the first annual picnic of the Association and Prof. Chas. S. Plumb, Ohio State University, will give the address of the afternoon. Prof. Plumb has a national reputation and every farmer interested in live stock should hear him. He will not limit his talk to cattle, but will also include live stock in general.

The Red Cross will have a stand on the grounds and a general good time is expected. The baskets will be the main attraction at 12:30 and one long table will be spread. The families attending the reunion on the grounds the same day are invited to hear Prof. Plumb's lecture.

The officers of the Association hope this picnic will be referred to in after years as the time of your life. Be sure and come, Jas. F. Zimmer, Sec'y.

FRANCIS WEDS BEVERLY

SOON AFTER DIVORCE. Baltimore, Aug. 2.—Francis X. Bushman, movie star, and his co-star, Beverly Bayne, were married at New York Monday. Bushman smilingly admitted here today. The marriage quickly followed granting of a divorce to the first Mrs. Bushman at Towson, Md. last Friday. Bushman quietly discussed the marriage to Miss Bayne and regretted publicity in the matter, he said, until a statement made by his former wife was read to him. "They might have waited until the ink was dry on the divorce papers," said the first Mrs. Bushman.

"I should have obtained a divorce three years ago," was Bushman's reply to this.

Wigg—"Hardaphe always seems buried in thought." Wags—"Well, when a fellow is short he naturally does some tall thinking."

AH! A DOSE OF EPSOM SALTS

Not ugly! Like drinking glass of lemonade now

Instead of asking for the common Epsom Salts, ask for Epsomade Salts hereafter. You will get a big package for only 15 cents. Epsomade Salts looks and acts exactly like Epsom Salts, because it is Epsom Salts combined with fruit derivatives thus making a sparkling effervescent, lemonade-like drink for the liver and bowels.

Take a tablespoonful of this delicious Salts in a glass of cold water when you feel bilious, sick, headachy or constipated and get the quick and splendid action of a dose of Epsom Salts without the horrible taste.

Epsomade Salts will replace the old Epsom Salts, Rochelle Salts, Sodium Phosphate and Cathartic Pills in every home, say local druggists.

MILK DEALER SAW REAL MEANING OF STANDING OFFER

Words "Dollar Back" In Every Nerv-Worth Ad Gave Him The Buying Faith.

That faith prompted the purchase of a first bottle. Other purchases followed and the tonic did the rest, as his signed statement, voluntarily made, fully proves.

Nerv-Worth—Before taking Nerv-Worth, in fact ever since I was young, I had serious stomach trouble. Could not eat cabbage, turnips, corn cakes, nor many vegetables, except with serious distress. When I saw that every Nerv-Worth ad contained the words "Your dollar back if the tonic does not help YOU," I concluded that the remedy must have real merit. I bought a bottle of it. That first bottle did me so much good that I felt encouraged to believe it would cure my indigestion if I kept on. So I took Nerv-Worth until four bottles had got in their work against my trouble and NOW I AM CURED. I can digest all those foods which gave me so much distress and can go to bed and sleep like a baby. Nerv-Worth also has banished all my nervousness and sleeplessness.

AMERICANS HAVE STRONG NERVES

Nervousness and Nerve Troubles on the Decline

"Nothing wrong but your nerves", is a saying that is fast dying out in this country. While nerve trouble is no organic disease, one of our leading nerve specialists remarked: "A man or woman might better break a leg than have a battered nervous system."

Overwork and worry drains the nerve cells of their reserve strength and food, and then follows the sleepless night, indigestion, poor appetite, impure blood and general nervous breakdown.

The thing to do in such cases no longer trouble doctors and their patients who know from their own experience the value of Phosphated Iron. They know that a few weeks' regular use of this nerve food and red blood builder will strengthen and brace up the whole nervous system, because Phosphated Iron gives the tired, hungry, worn-out nerve cells phosphates and iron, in a form easily and quickly absorbed; as one happy user said: "You can almost feel it taking hold of the nerves and blood, after a short time you feel like a new person; life seems a pleasure and worth living once again."

In every section where Phosphated Iron has been used there has been a big decrease of nerve troubles and it will prove a welcome relief to any sufferer. You can bank on it for results—it's true.

To insure physicians and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put up in capsules only, do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

Notice to Druggists Price Advance

For over a year now we have succeeded in maintaining our old prices, principally by virtue of a big increase in sales, which reduced our overhead cost.

For our fiscal year ending July 1, 1918, our sales amounted to over a million dollars—an increase of 25 per cent over the preceding year.

We had hoped to bridge the war period without a change in prices on but we find that our economies do not keep pace with our rising costs. It is with sincere regret, therefore, that we are forced to announce an increase, effective August 1, which will make it necessary to retail VapoRub at 30c, 60c and $1.20.

TROOPS OF ALLIES TAKE MORE THAN 33,000 PRISONERS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Aug. 2.—Allied troops celebrated the fourth anniversary of the war by a victorious resumption of the offensive to the surprise of a great many who had believed the battle had entered into one of its periodical lulls.

Incidentally, the official statement on the total of prisoners—more than 32,000—bring out forcibly the extraordinary change in the situation a short month has effected. On the first of July, the allies, to reverse Walpole's famous phrase, were almost wringing their hands; now they would be justified in ringing bells.

The ground won yesterday north of the Ourcq has considerable value. It is a long spur about six hundred feet high forming the water shed between the Crise and the Ourcq and is a valuable observation point. From it the Germans prevented the allies from seeing the Crise, while they overlooked the ground won from them on the Ourcq. The allies stormed not only the summit, but the northern slope of the terrain. As a consequence they can now maneuver safely in the Ourcq region. In addition they have a view behind the great Hartennes plateau where the enemy still clings along the Soissons-Chateau-Thierry road and that strong position, difficult of attack frontally, can now be turned from the north through Villeneuve and from the south by way of Hill 205.

The allies also gained an important advantage on the left in the capture of Meunier wood, the Americans giving them a position which, according to Henri Bidou, is the key-stone of the whole German line in the center.

RECEIVES COMMISSION IN MEDICAL CORPS AND WITHDRAWS AS CANDIDATE
Lima, O., Aug. 2.—Receiving a commission in the U. S. Medical Corps, with the rank of captain, Dr. A. H. Herr, former representative from Allen county in the state legislature, today announced his withdrawal as a candidate for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket.

His entry into the race prevented Harry O. Bentley, Lima attorney, from opposing Frank E. Wilke, and was looked upon by local politicians as intended to accomplish that end.

ARMY CASUALTIES

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 2.—The army casualty list today shows:

Killed in action	42
Died of wounds	48
Died of disease	7
Died of accident and other causes	7
Wounded severely	126
Wounded, degree undetermined	2
Missing	6
Total	238

Among the army casualties reported were:

Dwight Simpson, Chillicothe, Ohio, died of wounds. Arthur A. Ackrayd, Cleveland, wounded severely. Forrest Butler, Kettle Island, Ky., wounded severely. Carroll M. Jarboe, Reynolds Station, Ky., wounded severely. Theodore Grimes, 712 West Jefferson Street, Springfield, Ohio, previously reported missing, now reported killed in action.

JOINT ACTION IN SIBERIA IS NOW ASSURED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 2.—Joint action between Japan, the entente powers and America in Siberia is assured. Soon after it had been learned that Japan had accepted the American proposal, President Wilson walked to the state, war and navy building where he conferred for half an hour with Acting Secretary Polk and Secretary Baker in the war secretary's offices.

The President and Mr. Polk left the office together and as they walked along the corridor had a very serious conversation, which was continued for five minutes in front of Mr. Polk's office before the President returned to the white house.

Last week when it appeared that an agreement was about to be reached on the basis of the original American proposal intimations were given in official quarters that the president was soon to issue a statement explaining the plans of the United States for participation in the expedition to give aid to Russia. It also was understood that the statement would make clear that the United States has only unselfish motives and intends to stand firmly beside the Russian people in their fight for democracy.

After the Japanese government found it necessary to call upon the state department for explanation of some features of the American proposal the statement was withheld. Presumably, now that a satisfactory understanding has been reached the statement will be issued.

Meanwhile the seal of confidence remains unbroken, and it is the desire of officials that there shall be no speculation in the press that might prove embarrassing.

Consequently all that is possible to say now is that in the beginning, at least, the international agreement must find its expression in combined military activity and cable advices have recorded the gathering of small bodies of entente troops at points in China convenient for dispatch into western Siberia.

Pao Kuei Ching, the provincial governor at Se Lung King, has been selected to command the considerable body of Chinese troops which have been gathered in Manchuria, and it is understood that already it has been arranged that this force shall operate in conjunction with Japanese troops, and that it will act under the direction of the Japanese commander-in-chief.

REAL SOLDIERS BEING MADE OUT OF OUR FIGHTERS

(Associated Press Correspondence)
With the American Army in France, July 24.—American unconcern in a close fight not only has surprised the enemy, but it has brought a feeling of dismay to picked detachments charged with the duty of driving the fear of the German into the soldiers from overseas.

It appears to be a sort of gospel among the Germans that when they attack for the purpose of spreading terror, after careful plans and preparations that the adversary should be low and succumb or surrender at the scheduled moment. They are slow to admit that their chosen victims may be anything but terrorized or that they may be found anywhere else than under cover when "the tightness" comes along.

Yet they do find the American boys at times coming out into the open, often rashly and unnecessarily, to meet the worst they have to offer. This fighting spirit often amounts to foolhardiness and that is how the Germans classify it, although more in distrust than in anger.

Some of the men from across the Rhine declare that it is not only foolhardy, but that it violates the fighting rules established since 1914 for a man to face them in the open when it is their attack.

"We couldn't take the village because the Americans were where they had no business to be," said a prisoner captured at Nivray on the Toul sector. "They came right out through the barrage and it wasn't right."

Asked why it was not right the German replied naively.

"They might have been killed." Although there is no evidence, it is probable that some unnecessary losses are attributable to this timidity—losses that will diminish as experience tempers zeal. However the Germans have learned that their claim to No Man's Land is questioned seriously by the Americans. The Germans, in these excursions, strive to "rattle" the new soldiers as veteran baseball players do a new comer. But as diamond star has developed from a man hooted on his first appearance, so real soldiers are being made out of boys who have met the enemy when they were new to the fighting game.

feet deep. So it remains and so it will remain while the still summer weather lasts—a village of the dead, of dead cats, dogs, rats and mice, with all the herbs and flowers that had blessed it burnt and blighted.

Meanwhile the battle circles about it on the surrounding hills, the Americans fighting towards it up the Ourcq valley and over the high ground north of Roncheres and down from the hills near Serzy, while the Germans, after filling the village with gas, illustrated from the crests to the north and the east what could be accomplished in a deterrent way with machine gun fire."

NEW POSITIONS

Meunier wood has been cleared of Germans. This marks an advance of a mile and three quarters. Nothing is said of the fate of the Germans at St. Gemme at the tip of the salient, but it is assumed that they have retreated from their perilous positions.

Further toward Rheims, the important town of Ville-en-Tardenois has been encircled by the allies, it is reported. The dispatch would seem to indicate that the German defenders of the place have been surrounded by the allied advance.

Advices reaching London say the success of the allies on the western side of the line is the most important accomplishment since the German retreat from the Marne began. The view taken in these dispatches is that the advance on Thursday was the turning point of the campaign and possibly of the whole war.

While the detailed reports so far received in this country have not shown the ground for this view, it seems clear, at any rate, that the German retreat, which has been proceeding slowly, must now be hurried if the enemy is to escape a terrible pounding from the allied heavy guns. The advance of the allies to within easy cannon range of Bazoches and likewise of Fismes, the German base on the Vesle will tend to disarrange all plans the enemy may have formed to hold his opponents at bay until the defenses along the Vesle could be thoroughly organized.

Along the British front there have been raiding operations, with the German artillery quite active in various sectors.

MALE STENOGRAPHERS ARE BECOMING SCARCE

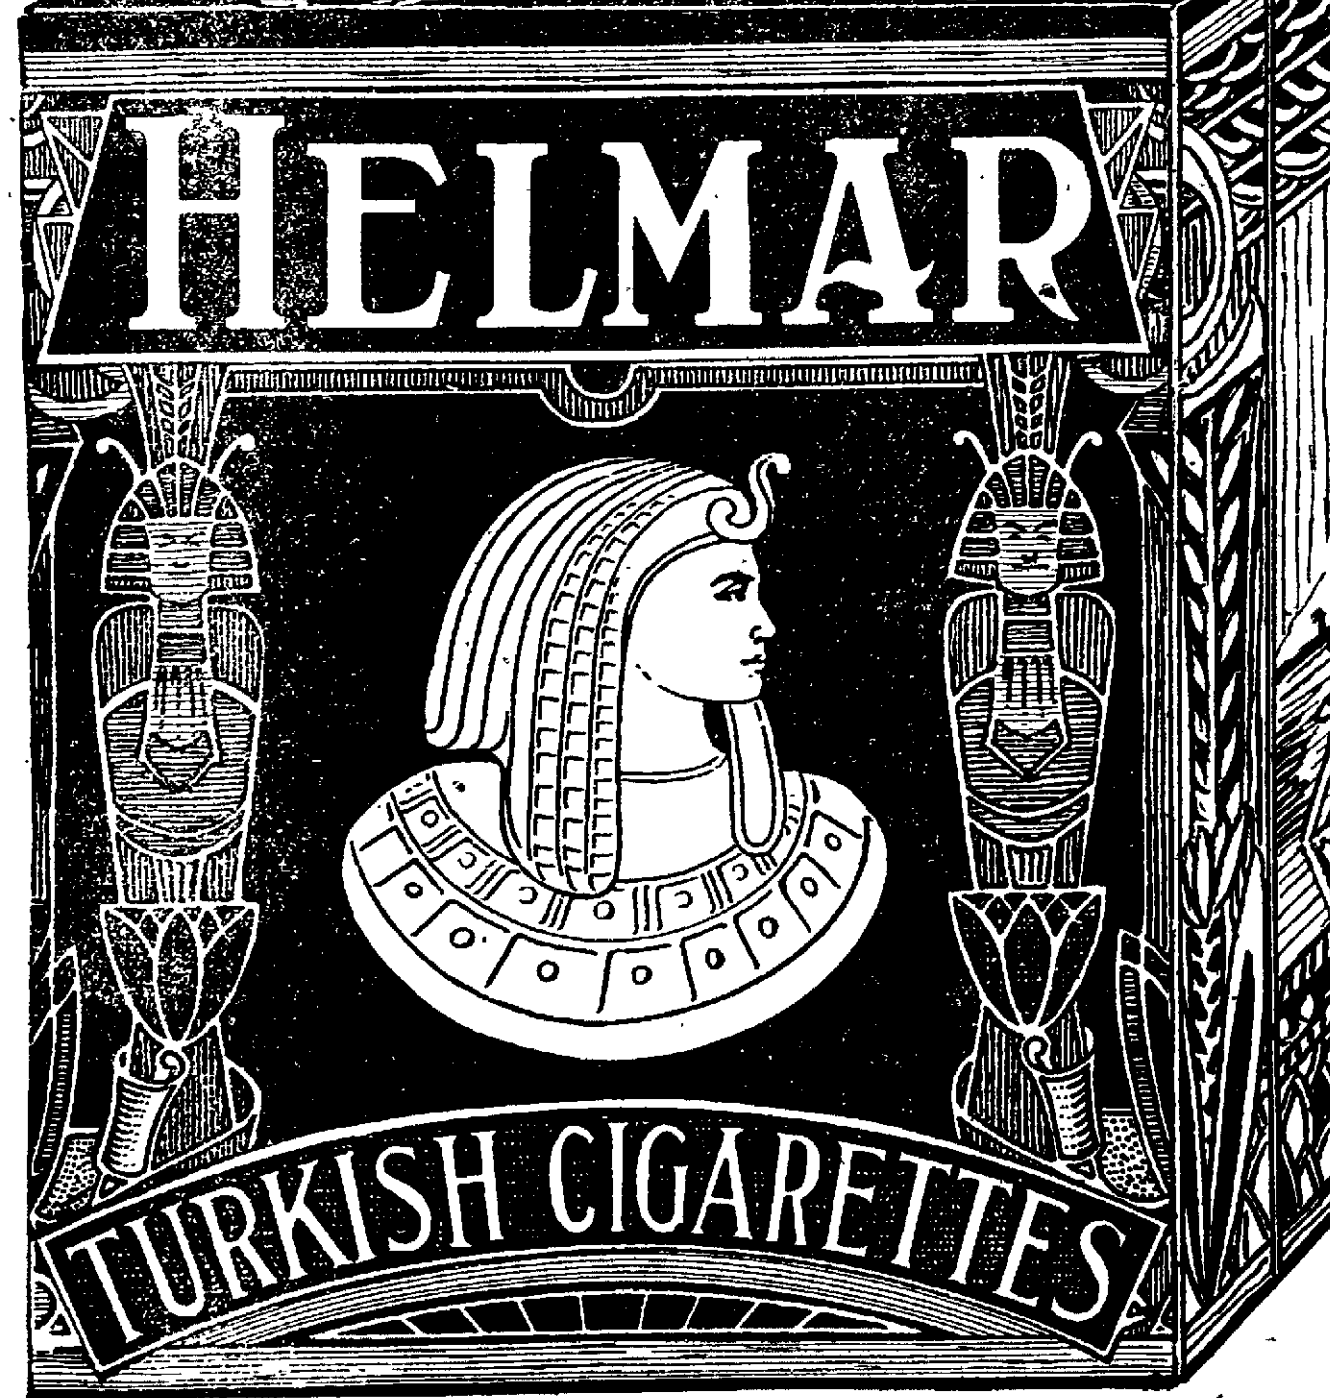

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Aug. 2.—Female stenographers who have replaced men to a great extent in practically every department of the government may soon enter the white house. If men now employed there continue to enlist in the army and navy, two male stenographers left the white house today for aviation schools and another gave notice of his resignation to enter military service. Raising of the draft age, now under consideration in the war department, would result in many additional vacancies. No women stenographers have been employed heretofore at the white house.

BADLY INJURED WHILE ATTEMPTING RESCUE OF NEPHEW

Mrs. Frank Woolard, of the Jack-sontown road, was seriously injured late Thursday afternoon, when she attempted to rescue her 3-year-old nephew, Herman Gutridge, from a buggy, when the horse ran away.

The little boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gutridge, had accompanied his grandfather, George Woolard, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woolard. The child remained in the buggy and Mrs. Woolard was talking to him. The horse suddenly became frightened and ran away. Mrs. Woolard ran beside the buggy and caught the baby just as the vehicle turned over. Both were caught under the top, but the little boy was not injured. Mrs. Woolard had the ligaments of her leg badly torn and was painfully bruised. Dr. H. J. Davis was called and put the injured leg in a cast.

The buggy was demolished when the horse dragged it through the barn. It broke away from the wreckage but was caught later.

NO AMMONIA IN MANUFACTURED ICE

Manufactured ice is absolutely pure. This is an answer to a communication to The Advocate to answer the question whether there is ammonia in the water obtained from melting ice.

The process of the manufacture of ice is such that it is utterly impossible for ammonia to get to the ice, and also for the ice block to contain anything but the purest water.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic troubles, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I consented to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my friends work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

The distilled water is then placed in cans of the size of 400-pound blocks. The cans are immersed in a salt brine solution, and through the solution run pipes filled with ammonia.

There is no opportunity for the ammonia to reach the distilled water. The ammonia cools the salt solution and the salt brine freezes the water. The ice blocks when frozen are of the purest water.

COMMISSION IS RECEIVED BY JOHN A. WARD

John A. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ward, Hudson avenue, has been commissioned a lieutenant in the aviation branch of the United States army.

He received his commission yesterday at Call field, Wichita Falls, Tex., and was recommended for pursuit service. Lieutenant Ward was graduated from the Newark high school and later from Denison university. He was affiliated with the Ohio State Journal when he entered the service and finished his ground-work several months ago. He was then assigned to the Texas field.

In the will of the late May Miller, all the real estate is willed to her daughter—Bertha Mullenix—on condition that she turn over to Arthur Miller Maxson of Clarksville, Miss., son of the testatrix, one-third of all real property owned by her. Her Spring street property is willed to the city. The city will accept it for the purpose of erecting and maintaining on it a children's hospital. This bequest to the city is to take effect at the death of her daughter, Bertha Mullenix, who will hold the property until that time. In case the city does not accept the property within reasonable time, it shall revert to the estate of Bertha Mullenix. To her husband is left a dower interest in the real estate. All personal property is left to her daughter.

LOCKED OUT EMPLOYEES.
Sandusky, O., Aug. 2.—Only ten out of 31 lathes are in operation at the Sandusky Foundry and Machine company plant, and about 100 workers have been locked out by the employers when they learned that machinists were preparing a demand for "better working conditions" and higher wages. A high steel fence was built around the plant yesterday.

SEVENTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS AN HOUR AUGUST 6, 7, 8 AND 9

Join This Illustrious Group

"And for the support of this Declaration with a firm reliance in the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually Pledge to each other our lives, our Fortunes and our sacred honor."

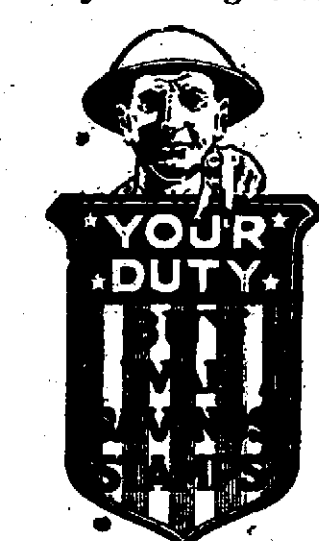

WITHOUT this PLEDGE, the immortal charter of human liberty would have signified nothing but a mere protest. With this PLEDGE, it was endowed with eternal life and sprang into existence as the greatest document of all recorded time.

These men met to oppose tyranny and to demand freedom. They knew what would be the consequences of their mighty action. "We must hang together," said one, "or we shall hang separately." Another, fearing that non-participants might suffer, identified his signature by attaching the place of his residence. The man who dares act, dares openly to PLEDGE support in advance to that action. Every soldier who swears allegiance to the flag PLEDGES himself to die for his country. There are millions of Americans who have taken this oath; hundreds have redeemed it with their life's blood. Their sacred honor stands unspotted.

To those who are not permitted to fight is accorded the high privilege of sustaining the soldiers in the field. To them now comes the plea of the nation for a PLEDGE. It is for financial support. They are asked to make a covenant that will give assurance to the fighting forces that behind the lines of shot and shell are arrayed the dedicated dollars of loyal men, women and even the children of this land.

They are urged to PLEDGE themselves to purchase the maximum amount of War Savings Stamps, which is $1,000, maturity value. These little bonds sell for $4.19 each. If conditions are such that they cannot buy the maximum amount of $1,000, they should PLEDGE themselves to take any part of this total. Give your PLEDGE next week and resolve to redeem it by systematically saving sufficient of your surplus between today and November 30. Devote yourself to some new endeavor to increase your income to the end that you, like the Fathers, may PLEDGE a part of your fortune and all your sacred honor toward making every human being "a free man, in a free country, in a free world."

Licking county's quota is $1,236,180. Of this sum $706,325 worth of War Savings Stamps have been taken by people of the county. There remains to be sold a half million dollars worth. The Licking County War Work Organization of 500 men is pledged to this work and a quota has been assigned to each township. The campaign is to open August 6 and continue four days. The stamps must be sold at the rate of $17,000 an hour, 8 hours a day, for four days, if Old Licking is to go over the top. Licking county has not yet failed in any of its war work, and it must not fail now. Buy all of the stamps you can August 6, 7, 8 and 9.

$17,000 AN HOUR.

The plans are laid for a county wide campaign for the sale of War Savings Stamps beginning next Tuesday, August 6 and continuing Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The work is to be done by the Licking County War Work organization, an efficient body of 500 public spirited, patriotic men who are pledged to give their best service to work undertaken by the executive committee. The sale of War Savings Stamps is easy and pleasant work—easy because every man, woman and child is a "prospect"; pleasant, because in making a sale you are really conferring a favor upon the buyer by inducing him or her to save instead of spend. So much has been printed and said about War Savings Stamps that everybody knows of their value and of the need of selling the county's allotment of nearly a million and a quarter dollars.

While the sales to date exceed the quota to date, it must be remembered that the Fourth Liberty loan is coming within a short time and the War Stamp sale must be "put over" before the next bond issue arrives. We have a half million dollars' worth of war stamps to buy in this county in order to go over the top this year. If everybody will do his or her part next week the job will be finished easily. Remember that every dollar invested in War Savings Stamps will come back to the investor with interest. Not only that but it will come back at anytime upon ten days' notice. It is the very best investment the world offers today. The size of the job next week may be better appreciated when it is noted that the sale of stamps must average $17,000 an hour eight hours a day on August 6, 7, 8 and 9.

SAVING THE WOUNDED.

The care of the wounded has involved many new problems. The proportion of men restored to health and sent back to the fighting line is marvellous.

The use of high explosive shell creates wounds that would seem hopeless. These are not the clean cuts of the old fashioned bullet, but a terribly jagged and irregular breaking down of tissue. Much of it may be burned, with likelihood of putrefaction. In trench warfare the soldiers have to live in such dirty conditions that there is every chance of infection.

The surgeons treat these wounds very much like a cancer, in which not merely all the injured tissue must come out, but adjoining substance that is under suspicion of injury. Treated in that radical way, a surprising freedom from dangerous complications is obtained.

The recovery of the patient depends largely upon the quickness with which his wounds are attended to. After treatment at the advanced dressing station, he goes to the casualty clearing station, where the operation commonly takes place. The tendency is to bring this hospital closer and closer to the front lines. Usually now it is less than 10 miles back. This exposes it to the danger of bombing by the diabolical Huns. But as patients are kept there only a short time, the risk has to be taken, and the chances of getting hit are not large.

The great bulk of the gas cases recover. Earlier in the war such injuries as compound fractures of the thigh proved very dangerous. Now they put a new type of splints on over a wounded man's clothes when he is first picked up, and save the bones from jarring. The cases usually come through. There are comparatively few amputations. It is a great work of restoration, bringing joy to the friends of the soldier, and preserving the fighting power of the army.

GARDENING IN MIDSUMMER.

Gardening in midsummer is not quite like gardening in May. Then the fresh breeze of springtime made it a pleasure just to be out doors and alive. The novice gardener felt a thrill of satisfaction when his seeds came up. He hardly expected it. He rejoiced in his triumph over the obstacles of nature and worked with enthusiasm.

Midsummer brings a different story. For people used to labor in cool offices, a hot day in the clear beating sunlight is a formidable consideration. They will under the direct rays, and are ready to quit after one day of perspiration. They should begin gradually, accustoming themselves to sunlight little by little. Morning and evening are the best times for gardening. Taken at those hours, the pleasure of out door life may be great even through heat.

The weeds are the greatest enemy. Where you have to struggle for the life of your beans and potatoes, the weeds grow without effort under most severe conditions. You root them up and throw them down to die. But their wicked little feet wriggle around under the sun, and soon they are alive and breathing once more.

The dry weather that would kill your plants in a week, will not touch them. Air and soil give them all the life they need, and they grab a good share of your expensive fertilizer. So it is one long battle. But it can be done as many garden triumphs here in Newark are proving. The easiest way is to not let the weeds get a start. Once the vegetables get well ahead, they tend to choke out the weeds. The good gardener finds the latter part of the season less laborious. The Newark school gardens are in splendid condition this summer.

JOHNSON-WILLIS.

(Ashland, O., Press.)
The people of Granville and Denison University are indignant, and justly so, over the slurs that have been hurled at the son of Professor and Mrs. W. H. Johnson by the Willis press. The underhanded attacks are the result of Professor Johnson's fearless exposure of Mr. Willis' enlightened embargo utterances, and are intended to discredit him.

Rather than discredit Professor Johnson or his soldier son they are a forceful reflection upon the honor and intelligence of the assailants. The attack was to the effect that Professor Johnson's son was working in an optical department of the government at Cleveland, and making no effort to get on the firing line. The facts of the matter are that Arthur Lowell Johnson was working in Cleveland and was barely of age when the draft law went into effect, and his number was 9161 in the drawing at Washington which would place him near the bottom of the list. Declining an inspectorship in the Ordnance Department he enlisted in the aviation Corps, and when these remarks were on the press was on his way to Fort Sill for field training.

Professor Johnson, who is above such underhanded and low methods of fighting, would disregard these slurs upon him and his son. But the indignant people of Granville will not. They, as every other patriotic citizen, will insist that the young man's name and service be presented in the true light, while he is away in the service of his country, in its most dangerous branch, and unable to answer these despicable thrusts by persons who should be above such methods.

BURY THE HAMMER CLUB

Mrs. Broadmind's appeal for loyal support of public movements without regard to social lines, led Brother Liberal to get up on his feet at the last meeting, and venture a few remarks.

"I think we are too much inclined in our community movements," he said "to think we can work only with the same group of people we have been working with. If I won't work with Smith because he goes to some different church, or with Jones because he doesn't belong to the same lodge, we are never going to get anything done. We are too much inclined to hammer the people from other groups who start things for the community good.

"We seem to feel that they are doing it to enhance the prestige of their own church or lodge and do not give them the credit for the community spirit that they probably possess just as much as we do. I say when a man from one organization takes hold to start something for the good of Newark we just all ought to get out and 'holer' for him and for it, regardless whether we ever spoke to him before or whether we like him personally or not."

HANDING IT TO THE GERMANS.

(Philadelphia Record.)
"Got to hand it to those Germans," folks said when the war began. "Got to hand it to those Germans!" So the earlier comment ran, when with battle banners over them, they were sweeping all before them, making conquests left and right. "Got to hand it to those Germans; they can fight!"

"Got to hand it to those Germans!" Even when we knew them wrong, and they'd sunk the Lusitania, still we passed the word along. When the Deutschland crossed the ocean, wonder was our chief emotion; sportsmanlike, we praised the feat; "Got to hand it to those Germans; can't be beat!"

"Got to hand it to those Germans!" often we were moved to say, after we had joined the rumpus and were girding for the fray. And when Pershing's men were ready, fresh and eager, strong and steady, then they yelled "Go get 'em, kid! Got to hand it to those Germans!" And they did!

A CARELESS CANDIDATE.

(Ohio State Journal.)
Henry J. Allen, a well-known Kansas editor, is the kind of candidate we like. When the Republicans of his interesting state began to talk about him for the governorship some months ago he said he'd feel honored to serve but wouldn't make any effort to win the nomination. His truly receptive attitude was that if they wanted him they could come and get him. Some time after the subject was broached to Mr. Allen he decided it was his duty to go to France and do Red Cross work, and he went and is still there, forgetting his candidacy or permitting it to take care of itself. Now the Kansas City Star predicts a walkaway for him in the coming primary and, inasmuch as Kansas never goes Democratic except when she has a chance to vote for Woodrow Wilson in a critical hour, we suppose he is as good as elected whether he comes back from France before the war is over or not.

Probably our professional Ohio candidates would consider Mr. Allen ridiculously wrong in his ideas of relative values, but even from their self-seeking viewpoint his methods bid fair to work out better than theirs. And it may be laid down as a general rule that a candidate's promise of good service in office is in inverse ratio to his eagerness for the job.

The Ohio War Board Says Today

By October 1 every household in Ohio should have their winter's supply of coal in the bin.

A recent survey conducted by the Woman's Committee, Ohio Branch, Council of National Defense, revealed that less than one-fourth of the coal needed in Ohio in households next winter had been laid in or ordered, up to a few weeks ago.

Miners report an adequate supply of coal care of the mine. But unless orders given by the people needing coal, dealers cannot place their orders for carloads.

The whole purpose of the campaign for early buying of coal is to relieve the railroads of the burden of transporting coal for domestic use next winter, leaving them free to haul food, munitions and supplies for shipment to our soldiers.

Did You Know
That the celebrated statue of the Apollo Belvedere was discovered in 1593 amid the ruins of ancient Antium? It was purchased by Pope Julius II, who placed it in the Belvedere of the vatican, from which it has taken its name. The date of its execution was probably during the reign of Nero, but the name of the artist is a matter of mere conjecture. The left hand and the right forearm, which was missing when the statue was discovered, were restored by Montorsoli, a pupil of Michael Angelo. The figure is more than seven feet high and is regarded as embodying the highest ideal of manly beauty.

A Clue.
John Ryland was an English preacher of very forcible style and once in concluding a sermon having to do with the triumph of spiritual grace over evil, he said: "And so the poor devil went off howling to hell, and all pandemonium was hung in mourning for a month," and got it. PHYSICIAN TELLS HOW NUXATED IRON HELPS TO MAKE STRONG, KEEN, RED-BLOODED AMERICANS.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO WIN IN EVERY WALK OF LIFE.

Practical Advice On What To Do To Build Up Your Strength, Power and Endurance And Increase The Red Blood Corpuscles.

"Actual blood tests show that a tremendously large number of people who are weak and ill lack iron in their blood and that they are ill for no other reason than a lack of iron." Says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Out door Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "It is through iron in the red coloring matter of the blood that life-sustaining oxygen enters the body, and enables the blood to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain. Lack of sufficient iron in the blood has ruined many a man's nerves and utterly robbed him of that virile force and stamina which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life."

"Therefore I strongly advise those who feel the need of a strength and blood builder to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go to this trouble, then purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original packages and see that this particular name (Nuxated Iron) appears on the package. If you failed to get results, remember that such preparations are an entirely false advertisement for Nuxated Iron which has been used and strongly have taken other iron products and endorsed by many physicians formerly connected with well-known hospitals."
